DEATHS

MRS. GEO. SHULL died at her home near Cretcher Tuesday evening as the result of child-birth. Her death is a very sad one as she is survived by eight children and they are in very poor circumstances. Mr. Shull is employed by Abe Smith and resides on his farm. The funeral occurred at Providence church Wednesday at 4 p. m.

WILLIAM FINNELL who has lived here a number of years died in Armstrong May 18. He left here about a month ago to go to the Masonic Home in St. Louis but he stopped in Armstrong to visit relatives and wasn't able to go any farther. He has several sons in Oklahoma. His wife died here in Marshall last August.

FRANCIS SCOTT, a patient at the Colony, died yesterday at 4 a. m. of marasmus, aged 7 years, 4 months and 3 days. His remains were sent by Undertaker Walker to his home in Carrollton for burial. The little boy's parents are cousins of Mrs. Dan Robertson of this city.

ST. LOUIS STOCK MARKET
Special to Marshall Republican.

National Stock Yards, Ill., June 14.
Cattle receipts 6200; good to choice steers fully steady, top $8.40. Medium steers and butcher stuff slow, and generally 10c lower. Many sales of half-fat grassers show more decline, and were slow sellers at best. Choice 750 lb. heifers sold up to $7.50. Out look on good grades strong; weak on others.

Hog receipts 15,000; market opened 10c lower. Demands were broad and the loss was soon regained. Sales averaged about like yesterday's close, top $9.50; bulk of all hogs $3.50 to $5.00. Outlook steady to strong.

Sheep receipts 12,000 which makes about 20,000 for two days. Lambs constituted a large percentage of the total. Good sheep sold about steady, the bulk at $5.50 to $5.60. Good lambs were off another 25c or 50 to 75c from last Friday. Bulk of the good ones $8.75 to $9.00; medium grades $8.00 to $8.65, and it took a deeper sort to satisfy buyers today than any other time lately. Culls and throw outs very hard to sell; prices for that kind ranged from $6 to $7.50. We look for smaller supplies next few days and the market needs a little rest. Otherwise, still lower prices will follow.

Storm Notes

The storm Wednesday, week did considerable damage. It was accompanied by a heavy thunderstorm and the lightning played havoc with stock.

Luther Bentley's residence near Blue Lick was struck by lightning which ran down the flue. Mr. Bentley who stood about three feet away, was knocked down. There was only a slight damage, but bricks were scattered over the room and the house filled with smoke.

C. W. Willig, of Mt. Olive, was hitching up, when he was knocked down by a bolt of lightning which struck nearby.

Fred Ludwig had two mules killed as noted elsewhere in this paper.

John T. Herndon had a fine mare killed by lightning Friday, week.

Charley Hayworth was milking his cow Wednesday evening during the electrical storm when a bolt of lightning struck a lightning rod on the barn 10 feet away. The shock knocked him and the cow down, and stunned them considerably.—Houstonian.

Joe Hamill, we are told, lost a steer by lightning Wednesday, week, at his farm near Shackelford.

J. H. Lakin, of Blue Lick, was here Monday and said the bridge across Crooked Creek known as the Fishman and Claycomb bridge was washed out by the high water. Sycamore bridge across Finis creek above Blue Lick was washed out last week. It was a big iron bridge and well built.

M. I. Barron was at Blue Lick Sunday and in going to see his brother, George, had to cross Finis Creek in a skiff. The creek, near the springs was three-quarters mile wide.

A. L. Liggett, the Slater weather observer, informed us that on Wednesday of last week there was a rainfall of 2.73 inches in the afternoon and 24 inches in the morning. Of this 1.20 inches fell in 20 minutes in the afternoon. The bridge across Bear Creek near Shiloh church, was washed out by the flood.

Fished in Cornfield

E. A. Stockman, of near Miami, says he caught a 3-lb. carp in his corn field on Thursday evening of last week between the corn rows. That looks very much like getting a double crop.

Another Fire at Corder

About 2.30 Tuesday morning Corder was again visited by a serious fire. Five stores and contents are almost a complete loss. Dave Garnett's confectionery, Chas. Benton's drug store, Jesse Humphreys soft drink parlor, Hetter & Morgan's shoe store and Frank Schulz's saddlery were destroyed. The last named was not a heavy loser. Burglars are supposed to have started the blaze.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Auer of the county were in Marshall Friday.

The Henry Lot Sale.*Henry Addition a Big Thing for Marshall.

It is seldom that a "booster" comes to our city who accomplishes as much good as did D. S. Henry, of Paris, Ky., in plating and selling the Henry Addition to Marshall. His boosting was of a practical nature and he goes away leaving our city more beautiful, with a handsome residence tract open and with the good will of all. The Addition is a 30-acre tract belonging to the Haring estate and adjoins Highland Addition. It is about ten minutes walk from the square.

The sale yesterday attracted a very large crowd of persons from our city as well as the country and the lots promise to bring a good price. As we go to press before the sale is completed we will give a list next week of the buyers here and at Slater and also of the prize winners here.

The Sale at Slater

Ideal weather and a very big crowd greeted Mr. Henry and his assistants at the big public lot sale at Slater Tuesday afternoon. The Henry Addition is just west of the new high school building and lies conveniently and nicely for a residence section.

The first thing was to raffle for the $10 gold piece. Miss Velma Means held the lucky number.

The lots were then sold at the rate of one a minute and the prices were very satisfactory, ranging from $150 down to $65 and totaling about $9000.

After the lot sale, another drawing occurred for the free lot. Miss Velma Gwinn, of Slater, was the lucky person, winning the lot on a number abandoned by a lady from the country who left the grounds before the sale was over.

Both of the winners are deserving young ladies of Slater and the prizes are fortunately placed.

A Row of Hard Luck.

Fred Ludwig, who farms five and a half miles east of Marshall, was in town Saturday and reported that during Wednesday's storm of last week lightning killed two of his good mules. They were lying near a barbed wire fence with three others. Lightning struck the fence a half quarter away and ran along the wire to the mules. He found the wire melted at three places and the weeds near the mules were also badly scorched. Mr. Ludwig also lost a yearling heifer the week before by being smothered in a straw stack and about the same time cut the end of his left thumb off by accident. His thumb is doing nicely and we hope his luck will be of an agreeable kind next time.

The Soldiers are Coming!

A whole company of soldiers is coming to Saline in regular fighting trim. But don't get scared, they're our friends. Through the efforts of Capt. R. B. Caples, of Glasgow, the march is being made through this part of the state instead of through Indiana as first planned.

Co. 1, 3rd Battalion of Engineers have received orders to leave Ft. Leavenworth about August first, and march through Jackson, Lafayette, Saline, Howard and Boone counties to Centralia, Mo., where the company will entrain for Indianapolis, Ind. The company will march through Saline about August 9th, 10th, and 11th, and Marshall will probably be selected as one of the camping places, if a good camping ground is offered.

Our people will for the first time have an opportunity of seeing a company of regulars armed and equipped with their weapon train on their march.

This company is made up exclusively of West Point graduates and the pick of them at that, making the company the best qualified one in the army for scientific work.

Public Building Assured

A bill in congress providing for public buildings includes Marshall for a $60,000 public building to be used as a post office and other government offices, will no doubt pass favorably in a few days and work will then begin in a short time. The report that Marshall lost out is unfounded.

Society Notes*Farrell-Flynn

Joseph Farrell, son of J. C. Farrell and his assistant at the Mo. Pacific depot, was married Wednesday to Miss Maud Flynn of Slater. Father T. J. Fortune officiating. The wedding occurred at 8 a. m. and immediately afterwards the guests were invited to a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride.

They left on the C. & A. soon after for a Western trip and on their return will occupy a residence prepared by the groom on North Odell in this city.

The groom is well and favorably known here, being reared here, and is a young man of fine ability and good qualities. The bride is the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mrs. Deia Flynn of Slater and possesses many attractive traits. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Duncan Bolton

Miss Rena Bolton, daughter of Rev. D. C. Bolton of this city and a graduate of M. V. C., surprised her friends by getting married recently at American Falls, Idaho, where she has been teaching, to Geo. R. Duncan. Mr. Duncan was formerly assistant in the Gilliam Exchange Bank and went west for his health. He has not only found health but happiness also.

The young couple has many friends in Saline and they all wish them a happy married life in their far away home in Idaho.

McElfresh-Ludwig

Joseph McElfresh, one of our popular young barbers, and Miss Katherine Ludwig, daughter of Herman Ludwig, of this city, were married at the home of the bride's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fuhrmeister, at Higginsville, Saturday in the presence of the relatives and a few friends. The groom is well and favorably known here in business circles, while the bride is a Marshall girl with a wide circle of friends. She is a splendid young lady and possesses the virtues of a true helpmate in every sense. We join their many friends in extending best wishes.

Cecil and Louise Cooper Entertain.

The Cooper home, Maple Hillside at Shackelford was the scene of a happy party Thursday afternoon. Notwithstanding the bad roads from the rain of the day before, twenty-four little friends and schoolmates assembled and many games were indulged in. A very interesting feature of the afternoon was an animal hunt which afforded much fun for the participants. Cookies, cut in forms of animals were hid in various places and to the one capturing the greatest number of animals a prize was awarded. The prize, a picture was won by Dora Flynn, Dora Weaver and Lura Hutcherson coming second and third in the hunt. Music was especially enjoyed, selections being given by Miss Haas of Slater and Miss Fannie Thompson. Refreshments of ice cream, strawberries and a variety of cakes were served. It was very much regretted that owing to the washout of a bridge the little Marshall friends could not be present.

At her home near Shackelford on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. G. R. Hutcherson entertained the Fancy Work Club of that place. A delightful time was reported and a good attendance. The refreshments were delicious as the hostess is noted for her skill in the culinary art. The duets rendered by Misses Lucile Becraft and Dora Watts of Marshall were very much enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis are entertaining a large number of visitors this week. Their son, Durward, of St. Louis, and daughter Mrs. Arthur Burton, of Columbia are home on a visit. Miss May Harvey of Booneville; Miss Mary E. Rawlings of Slater and W. H. Rucker are also guests of theirs. Some of these are also being entertained by the Misses Rucker.

White's City Store has installed electric fans for the comfort of their patrons. It is a big help in hot weather to shop in comfort.

Children's Day Services

One of the best programs for a children's day services ever given in Marshall was that by the M. E. Church South Sunday school last Sunday evening. The program consisted in motion songs, drills, tableau, recitations, songs etc., and many of the parts were carried out in appropriate costumes. Barely half of those coming to church could be admitted and a half hour before time for beginning they were compelled to turn away the overflow. W. W. Carpenter is the efficient superintendent of this school. He was assisted in preparing the program by Mrs. McDonald, Misses Lula Lamkin, Iva Hahn and Bernice Clark.

The children's day exercises at the Baptist Church Sunday evening were unusually fine and the church, as in the case with the Methodist, had to turn many away. The superintendent of the school was assisted in the preparation of the program by the Amona class, of which Mrs. Marie Morris is in charge. Their work was very well done, as the program was perfect in every detail. The exercises consisted of tableaux, drills, recitation, having special uniform for the children.

I. L. Terrell and wife were back from a several months stay in Texas last week. Mr. Terrell returned Monday and Mrs. Terrell will remain for the summer. They like Texas very much, but he advises our people to stay in Missouri, at least till he is able to buy the bigger part of Texas at the present prices. He has 1000 acres already—a good start.

Joseph Pettus is very ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Josephine Durrett.

Little Nelson Fletcher son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Fletcher living near White's Island was very badly scalded with hot lard last week. Both his feet had to be bandaged but his physician says he is getting along as well as could be expected considering how deep the burns are.

Mrs. Frank Pangborn of east Waverly who has been quite ill for several days is better and able to be up part of the time.

Orangie Powell, little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Powell shot himself accidentally while out hunting a few days ago. Dr. Kellogg of Waverly removed the bullet from his leg just above the knee and the little fellow is doing fine at present.

We are sorry to learn that Rev. L. A. Joseph was compelled to give up his charge at Wichita Falls, Texas, on account of bronchitis, and he and Mrs. Joseph have gone to Ward, Colo., for the benefit of his health.

J. K. Graves went to Kansas City Sunday to consult a specialist in regard to his eyes. They think they can help him but it will take time.

Church Notes

Instead of preaching services at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, children's day services will be held at 10.45 a. m. A splendid program is being prepared.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a cup and saucer sale at the home of Mrs. Jacob VanDyke this afternoon.

The Mt. Olive Sunday School will observe their annual Children's day next Sunday.

The veteran Sunday School Superintendent of the Christian church, Col. Jas. Gordon, was greatly pleased with the attendance last Sunday—414. The Christian S. S. is becoming one of the "biggest things in town."
